

Brentwood Academy Dance Head Coach Job Description

Part-time position

General BA Faculty:

Brentwood Academy teachers are passionate leaders of learning in the classroom. We also exemplify Christ, see each student as unique and valuable, and creatively draw students into conversation about how God has made us – body, mind, and spirit. We implement a rigorous curriculum and foster a deeply supportive academic environment for students to grow through developmentally appropriate learning experiences.

The Characteristics of a Brentwood Academy Teacher:

- Is Christ-centered and biblically literate
- Understands, embodies, and cultivates an understanding of each whole person – body, mind, and spirit – to the glory of God
- Is a consummate professional
- Is intentionally relational and serves as an advisor for 10-12 students
- Inspires and facilitates learning through a strong instructional ability
- Has a passion for teaching and subject
- Is an effective communicator, both orally and in writing, with students, parents, colleagues, and other professionals in a timely manner
- Is a collaborative and unifying team-player
- Implements well-planned student learning
 - through a Biblical worldview
 - by employing a wide variety of instructional activities
 - that is responsive to students' varying needs and interests
 - that employs formative and summative assessment (for learning)

Dance Head Coach:

The Brentwood Academy Dance head coach will work closely with the athletic director to lead the upper school sideline and competitive dance teams, as well as the competitive middle school team and middle school dance fitness program. This person will lead a team that loves Jesus, will point student dancers to an understanding of who they are in God's sight and will actively work to nurture and challenge students to the glory of God. The dance coach will develop relationships with dance parents and students, rooted in open, honest, and effective communication. While leading the team to excellence in their skills, the dance coach will build a culture of positivity.
